would be sick if they moved like the mask was moving over hte image in the BG & faded in and out
All different widths
And came in from left & right but only moved straight horizontally different speeds too they move

The walls
Collapse, like the seal
you've sown.

The walls
The walls Collapse, and the seal is Gone?

A minotaur with no maze
to call his home, a life,
A burden, a stepping stone.

The walls —
They were simple, they had grace —
Stood without your embrace
Or the face of others

The walls

Collapse, like the seal
you've sown.

The walls

The walls

Collapse, and the seal is Gone?

A minstrel with no maze
to call his home, a life,
A burden, a stepping
stone.

The walls —

They were simple, they had grace —
Stood without your embrace
Or the face of others

A myth that was true, a myth Persevered, or a passing fad
With not a moment wasted.

Poor minstrel,

Where are you now? Have you lost
That song
Of that which you were so fond?

The walls

Collapse, like the seal
you've sown.

The walls

The walls

Collapse, and the seal is Gone?

to call his home, a life,
